

WEST VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS ASSISTANCE

War Orphan Education Program

for fees associated with qualified students' room, board, books and other living expenses
West Virginia State Code 18-19-2

Students who qualify for the War Orphan Education Program will not be charged tuition and fees by a West Virginia post-secondary education or training institution. Award amounts administered by the West Virginia Department of Veterans Assistance are to cover costs associated with room, board, books and other living expenses. This amount fluctuates according to the number of applications received each semester. No more than $1,000 will be awarded to a student in any one semester and no more than $2,000 will be awarded to a student in any one year.

To qualify, a student must meet the following eligibility requirements:

1. Must be at least sixteen years old but not more than twenty-five (veteran spouses are exempt from this requirement)
2. Must be enrolled in a post-secondary education or training institution in the state of West Virginia
3. Veteran parent (or spouse) must have designated West Virginia as his or her state of record at time of enlistment
4. Veteran parent (or spouse) must have served in the United States Armed Forces on active duty as declared by the President under Title 10 and must have been killed in action or died as a result of his or her war service

Application deadline for Fall semester: August 31st

Application deadline for Spring semester: January 31st

Application deadline for institutions that do not operate on semesters: rolling

Students may not apply for this assistance retroactively

To apply for War Orphan Education Program assistance, please compile the following documents:
